1. Opening Hymn 510

1 The Voice that breathed o'er Eden
That earliest wedding day
The primal marriage blessing
It hath not passed away.

2 Still in the pure espouse!
Of Christian man and maid
The Holy Three are with us
The threefold grace is said..

3 For dower of blessed Children
For love and faiths' Sweet sake
For High mysterious union which rought on earth may break

4 Be present heavenly father
To give away this Bride
As Eve thou gav'st to Adam
Out of his own pierced side

5 Be present gracious saviour
To join their loving hands
As thou dist bind two natures
In thine eternal hands

6 Be present, Holy Spirit
To bless them as they kneel
As thou for Christ the Bridegroom
The Heavenly Spouse doth Seal

7 Oh, spread Thy pure wing o'er them,
Thy overshadowing love,
While one in Thee for ever,
They seek rest above.

8 Till to home of gladness
With Christ's own bride they rise,
And cast their crowns before thee.
In perfect sacrifice. Amen.

5. Introduction

The officiating Minister shall say:

Dearly beloved, we are gathered here before God and this congregation, to join together this man and this woman in holy matrimony which is an honourable estate established by God before the fall of Man, signifying to us the mystical union between Christ and His Church. This holy estate Christ both honoured and beautified with His presence at the wedding in Cana of Galilee, where He performed His first miracle. It is also commended by Saint Paul to be of great honour among all men. It is therefore not a thing to be rushed into, undertaken or instituted lightly to satisfy our carnal lusts and appetites, like brute beasts that have no understanding. But reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly and in the fear of God, carefully considering the cause for which matrimony was ordained.

Firstly, it was ordained for mutual companionship, help and comfort, that one ought to have of the other, both in prosperity and adversity.

Secondly, it was ordained for a remedy against sin, and to avoid fornication; that such persons as have not the gift of continence might marry and keep themselves undefiled members of Christ's body.

Thirdly, it was ordained for procreation of children, to be brought up in the fear and nurture of the Lord and to the praise of His Holy Name. Into this holy estate these two persons here present have come to be joined.

Therefore, if any man can show any just cause, why they may not be lawfully joined together in holy matrimony, let him now speak, (pause) or hereafter forever hold his peace.

6. Pastor's Charge

(The man and woman shall then stand, then the Bride shall be unveiled by the Groom)

The Pastor shall say:

I require and charge you both, as you will answer at the dreadful day of judgment when the secret of all hearts shall be disclosed, that if either of you know any impediment, why you may not be lawfully joined together in matrimony, you now have to confess it. For be it known to you that so many as are joined together against laid down principles in the words of God are not joined together by God; and their matrimony is not lawful.

7. Declaration of the Man

(The minister shall say to the Man):

Timileyin Solomon, will you have this woman as your wedded wife, to live together according to God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Will you love her, comfort her, honour, and keep her, in sickness and in health; and forsaking all others, keep yourself only unto her, so long as you both shall live?

The man shall answer:

Yes, I will. So help me, God.

8. Declaration of the Woman

Jolayemi Eunice will you have this man as your wedded husband, to live together according to God's ordinance in holy estate of matrimony? Will you obey him and serve him; love, honour and keep him in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, keep yourself only unto him, so long as you both shall live?

The woman shall answer:

Yes, I will. So help me, God.

9. Handing over the Bride to the Pastor

The Pastor shall say: Who gives this woman to be married to this man?

(The father or one of the relations of the woman shall take her by the right hand and hand her over to the Pastor and say)

I _____ hereby hand over my daughter Jolayemi Eunice to the Pastor to be joined to Timileyin Solomon in holy matrimony.

10. The Vow

(The Pastor shall then cause the man with his right hand to take the woman by her right hand, and to say after him as follows:)

I, Timileyin Solomon, take you Jolayemi Eunice, to wed as my wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death do us part, according to God's holy ordinance and there to, I pledge you my troth.

(Then shall the woman, holding the man's right hand in her own right hand, say after the Pastor as follows:)

I, Jolayemi Eunice, take you Timileyin Solomon, to wed as my husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love, cherish and to obey, till death do us part, according to God's holy ordinance; and there to, I pledge you my troth.

11. Giving and Receiving the Bible

(Then shall the two of them hold a New Holy Bible presented by the man. The man will then say after the Pastor as follows:)

With this Holy Bible, which is the word of God, I wed you; with my body, I honour you, and with all my worldly goods, I endow you, in the name of the F ather, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Amen.

21. Closing Hymn 511

Rest in the Lord - from harps above
The music seems to thrill -
Rest in His everlasting love
Rest and be still

Rest thou, who claimest for thine own
Thy chosen bride today,
Affianced in His faith alone
Thy bride for aye.

And thou, whose trustful hand is given Avouching here thy spouse,
Rest, for a Father seals in heaven
His children's vows.

Rest ye, who cluster round them both
To mingle praise and prayers;
Your God affirms the plighted troth,
Your God and theirs.

Rest for the Heav'nly Bridegroom here
Is standing by your side,
And in this union draws more near
His mystic bride.

Rest in the Lord - thrice Holy Dove,
In us Thy word fulfil -
Rest in His everlasting love.
